

In his new book, Practical Sacramental Theology, the renowned Roman Catholic liturgical scholar Bruce Morrill offers clergy and laypeople of all denominations rich theological insights into our worship practices. The Advanced Degrees Program at the School of Theology is fortunate to have Morrill teaching with us this summer, so we are taking the opportunity to hold a webinar in advance of its publication this fall. Hear a panel of Episcopal scholars and those in ministry discuss the book's insights, and ask your own questions of one of the best scholars of liturgy in North America.

Moderator James F. Turrell will be joined by panelists Hilary Bogert-Winkler, assistant professor of liturgy, School of Theology; Marcus Haley, dean of formation for the Diocese of Connecticut; and Bruce Morrill, Edward A. Malloy Chair of Roman Catholic Studies, Vanderbilt University.

When: Jun 16, 2021 07:00 PM Central Time (US and Canada)

Topic: Practical Sacramental Theology
