

Tuesday, Oct. 19

4 p.m.—Opening Gathering for Hybrid Conference

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/89725073337>

with Rev. Julianna Cappelletti Gray and the Rev. Dr. Jeanine Driscoll

- What part of this invitation sparked your decision to be present?
- Invitation to the first evening of retreat.
- Together, we will watch Bishop Glenda's homily on the Road to Emmaus story, and enter a time holy silence and journaling prompt

9 p.m.—Compline/Vespers (live-streamed for hybrid participants)

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/89854327294>

Wednesday, Oct. 20

9 a.m.—Morning Prayer with the Rev. Richard Cogill

9:30 a.m.—Plenary Session: Self-Compassion Teaching by Dr. Jeanine Driscoll for all participants

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/87883511141>

10 a.m.—Hybrid participants invited to join an optional discussion and reflection session

Late morning until 3 pm: free time for you to nap, take a walk, pray, write in your journal, etc. Spiritual directors available for one-on-one conversations by zoom.

3–4:30 p.m. Plenary Session: Rev. Katie Nakamura Rengers leads a "World Cafe," a way of going deep into the question, "What vision of the church's future most nourishes your soul, and your call to ministry?"

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/86475291506>

5 p.m.—Evening Devotions and Conversation with the Rev. Dr. Carla Roland Guzman about the history of The Episcopal Church

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/87140673536>

7 p.m.—Program: Thriving in life and ministry today

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/87216713746>

Reflection by Rev. Katie Nakamura Rengers "What decisions am I making now, and how are they a reflection of the way I sense the future?" (Nouwen).

Hybrid participants will be grouped into ministry areas to discuss hopes, dreams, and next steps, and we will close with prayer

Thursday, Oct. 21

8 a.m.—Breakfast

9 a.m.—Program: Thriving in Ministry: Our hopes, dreams, and next steps (Part II) with closing prayers by livestream, led by Rev. Richard Cogill

<https://sewanee-edu.zoom.us/j/81933831508>